Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Furihata-4300564 in view of Fogarty-3503397.

Furihata discloses in fig. 9 and its accompanying description a device including a 1st tubular leg 12 and 19; a 2nd tubular leg-11 and 18; the 2nd leg is pivotally connected to the 1st leg by a pivot point and therefore they cross each other. The legs are adapted to (or capable of) coupling to an unclaimed track and facilitate the track's insertion in a bony orbit of an eye. The legs could easily clamp or receive a track between the tips 22 or could receive an appropriately sized track slid over the tips of the clamps 22. However, it is not disclosed that the legs are held in alignment relative to each other. Fogarty, et al. teaches of providing a lock for handles of a clamping forceps. It would have been obvious to have provided the handle sections of Furihata with such a lock in order to keep the handles in a clamping position without the user needing to constantly exert a clamping force via the handles. Once engaged, the lock would hold the legs in alignment relative to each other.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1,3-15,17-33 and 41-44 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
